

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

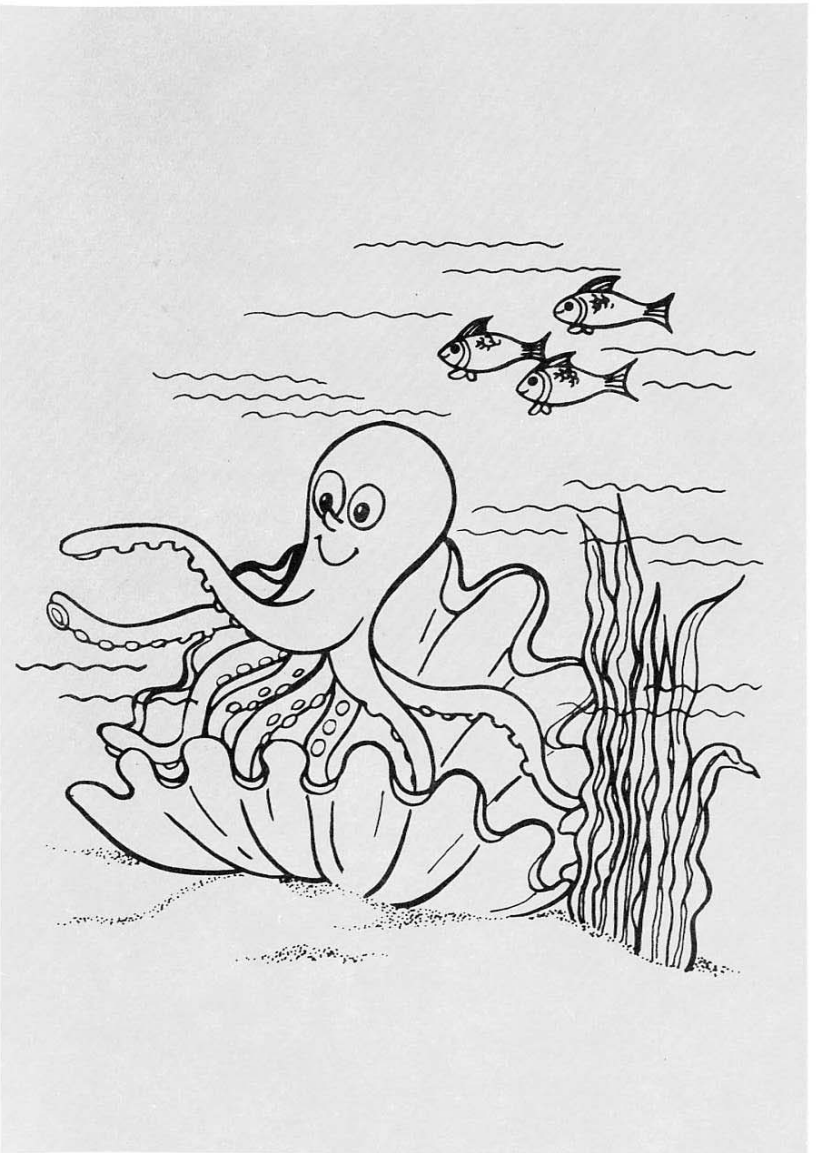

SWRL

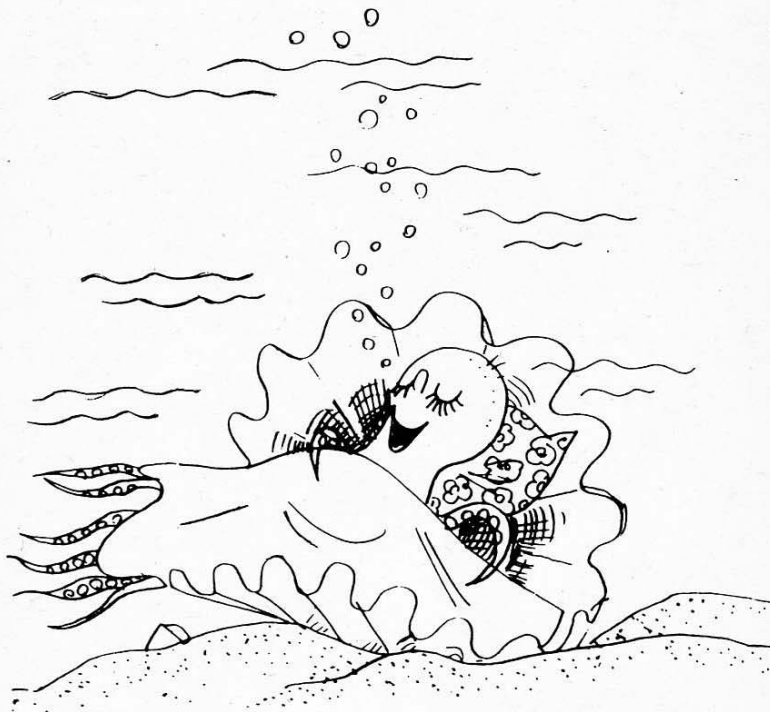

GINN AND COMPANY
A XEROX EDUCATION COMPANY

0-663-24 655-5

The Shell

Book 30

"The sheet and I fit in the shell.

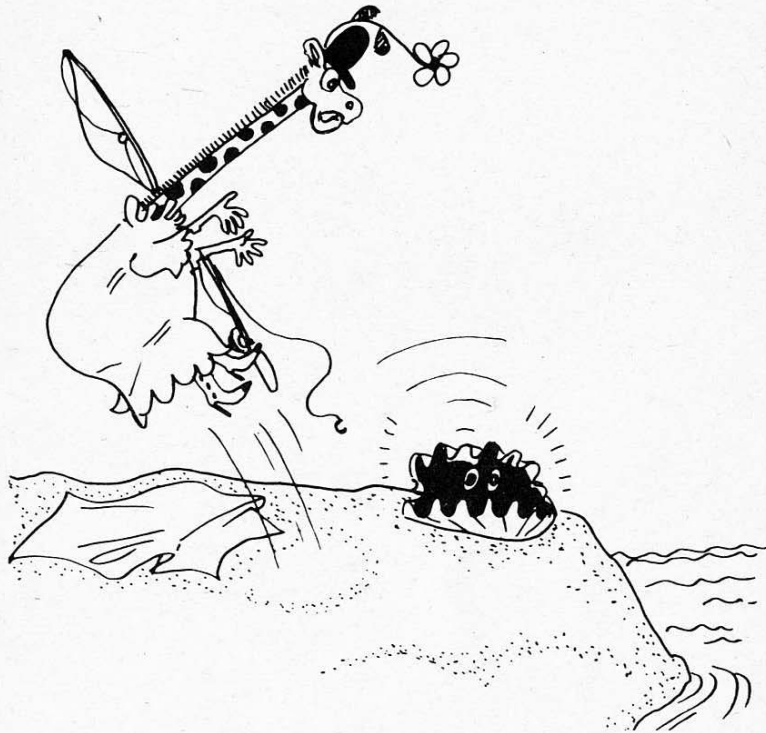

This is fun."

The Shell

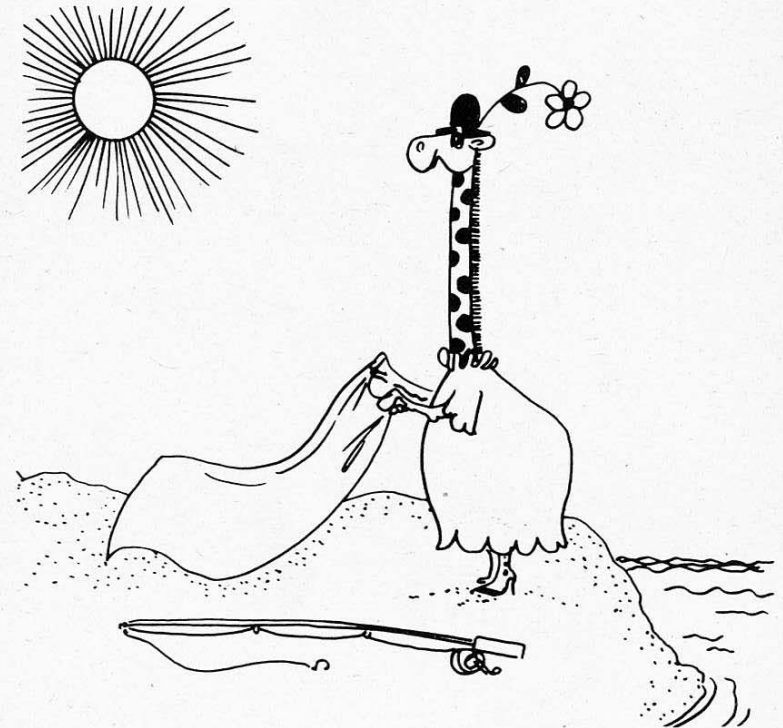

SWRL

GINN AND COMPANY
A XEROX EDUCATION COMPANY

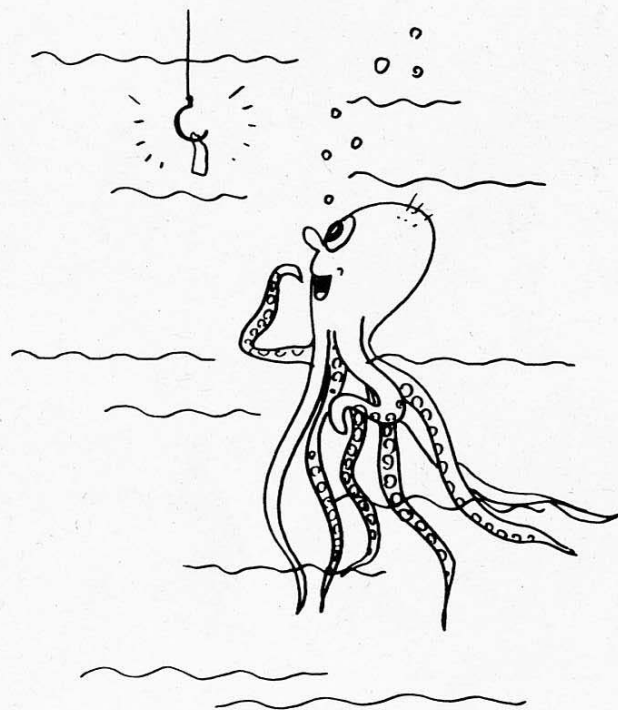

"She sees me in the shell.
Will she sell me?"

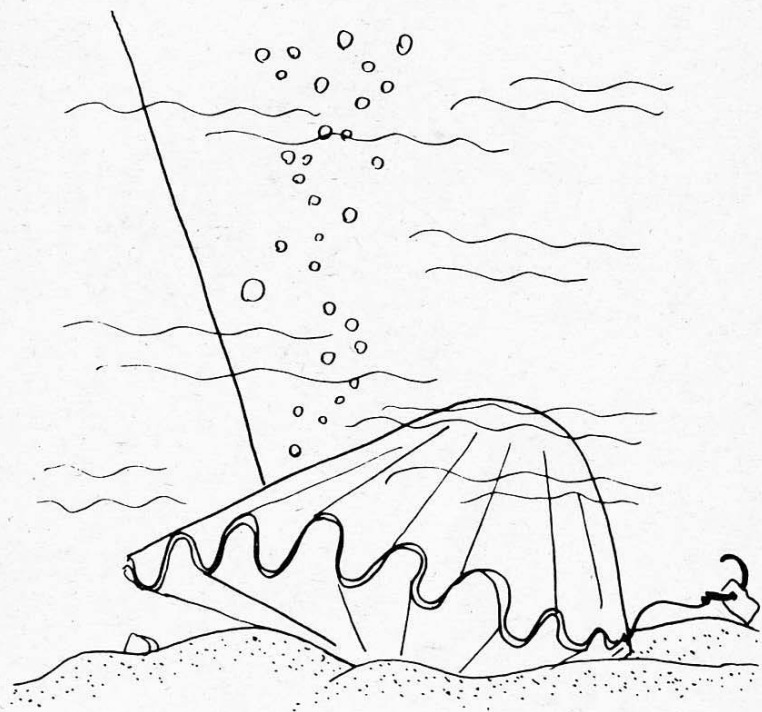

Ann is on the sand.
She will sit on the sheet.

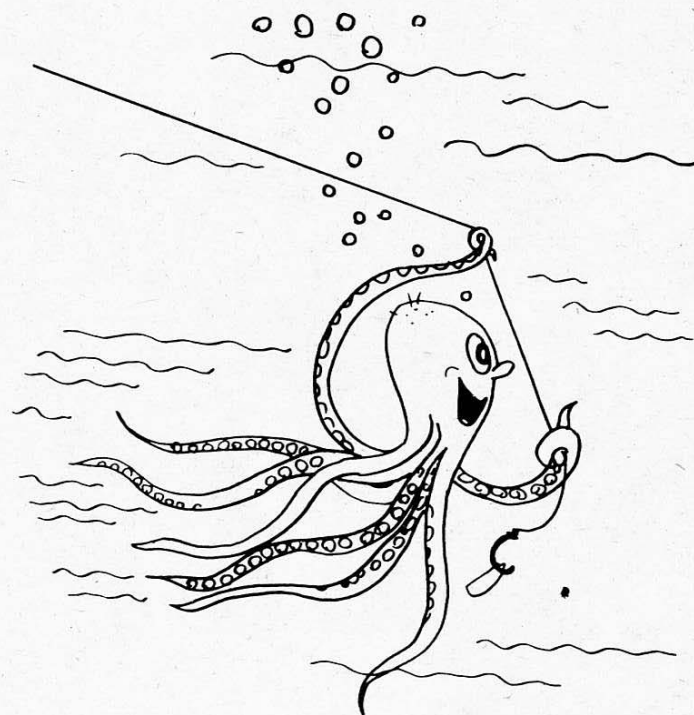

"It is a shell.
I will sell it."

"Well, let me see.
What is that?"

"I shut the shell.
Will she see me?
Will she sell me?"

"I need this.
It will fit in a shell."

New Words:

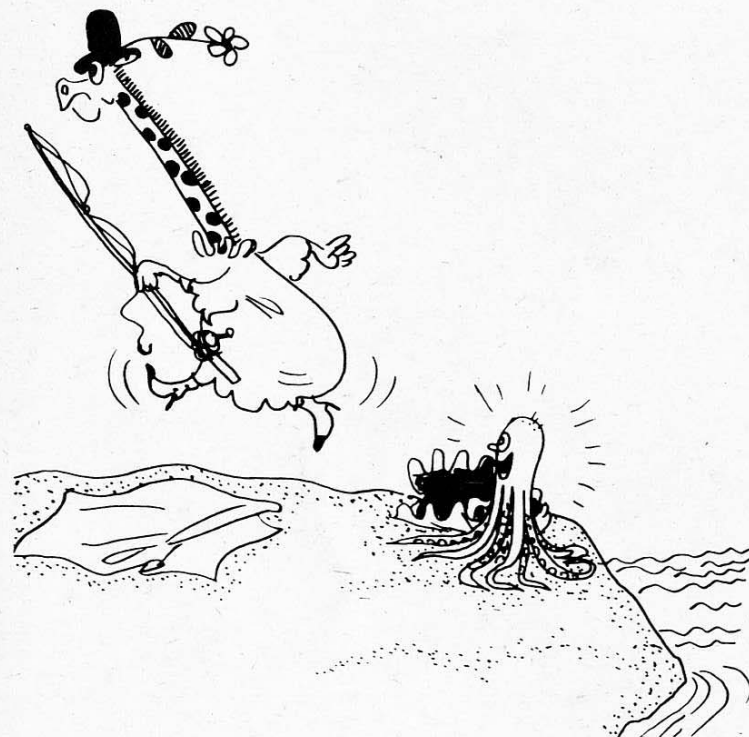

sand
sell shell

Plot Summary

Ann the Giraffe goes to the beach. She hopes to catch and sell some fish. A mischievous octopus sees her fishing hook and decides to play a trick on her. The octopus attaches the fishing hook to a big sea shell and hides himself inside the shell. When Ann pulls out the big sea shell, she is at first delighted. The octopus fears Ann will sell the shell with him in it. But Ann is frightened away by the octopus, who takes Ann's sheet and settles down in his shell.

Story Questions

1. p.1 – Why does Ann have a sheet with her?
2. p.6 – What is the octopus doing with Ann's fishing line?
3. p.10 – What is Ann going to do with the shell?
4. p.13 – Why does Ann run?
5. p.14 – What does the octopus take after Ann runs away?

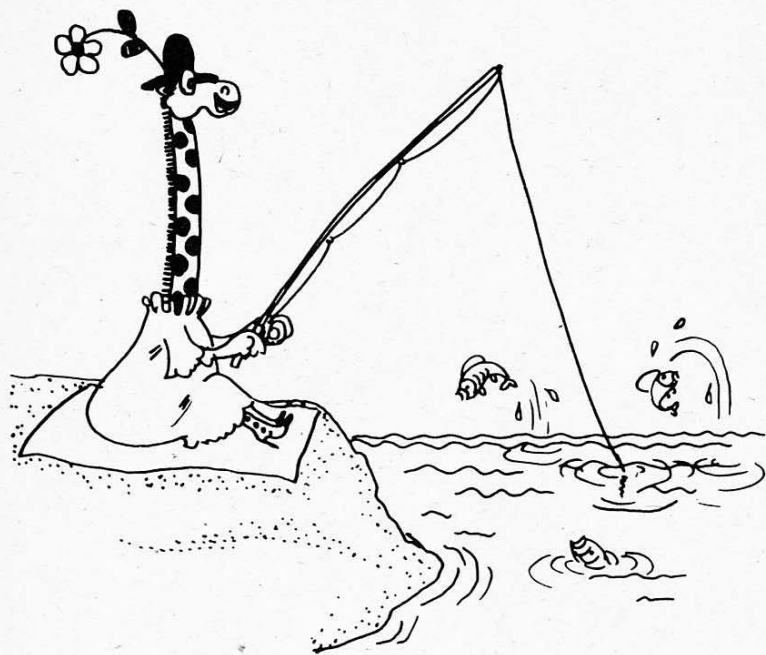

"The sheet is on the sand.

Ann ran.

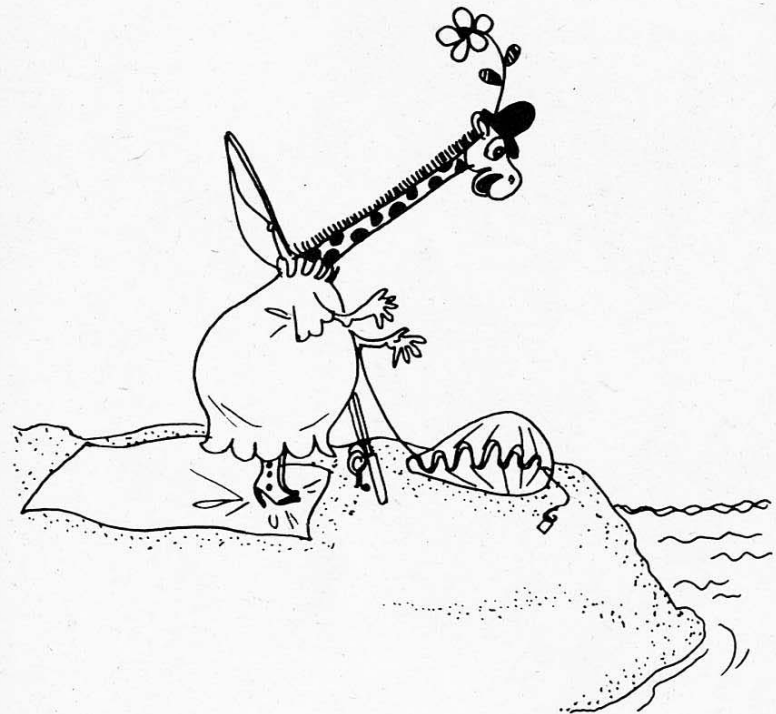

Did she need the sheet?

Well, I need it."

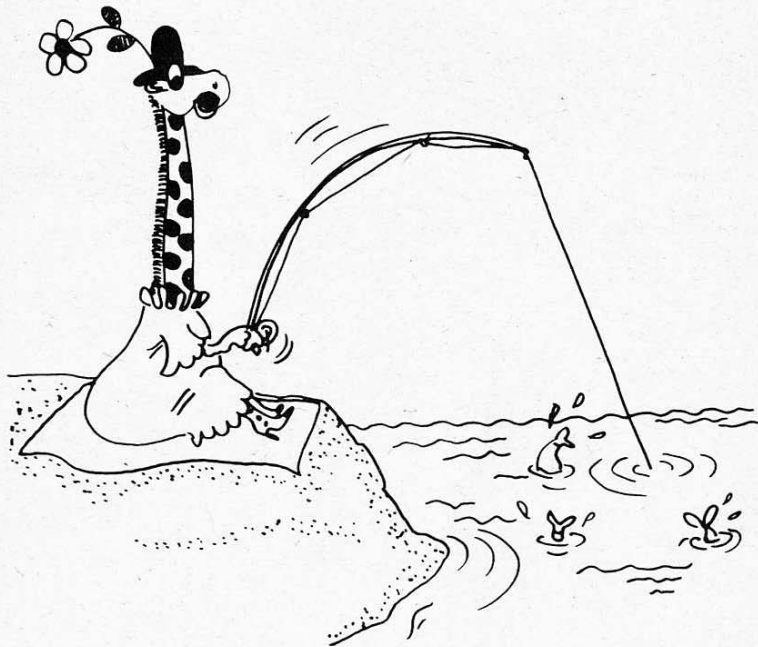

Ann sits on the sheet.

The sheet is on the sand.

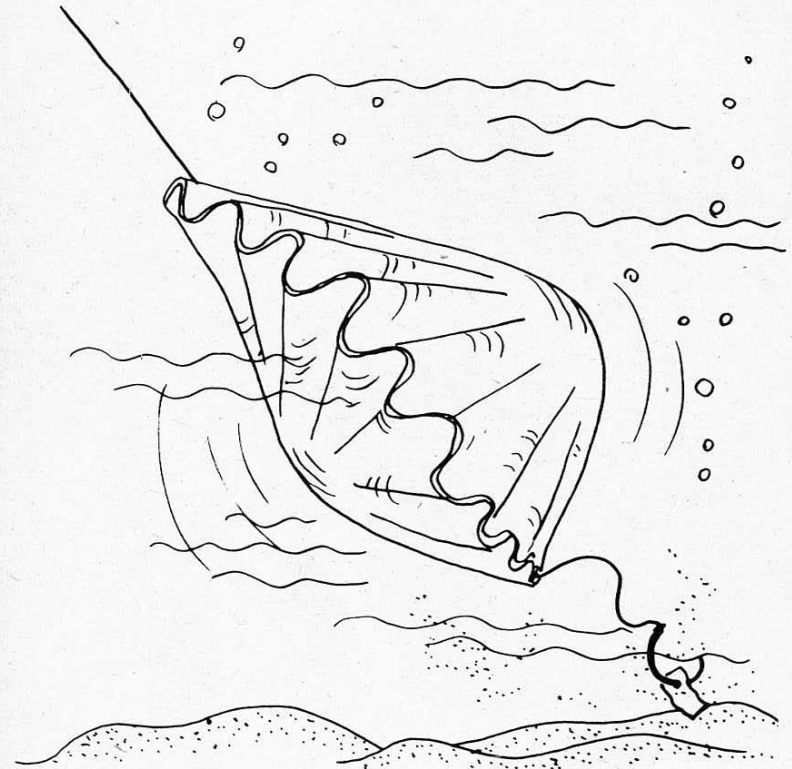

"The shell is on the sand.

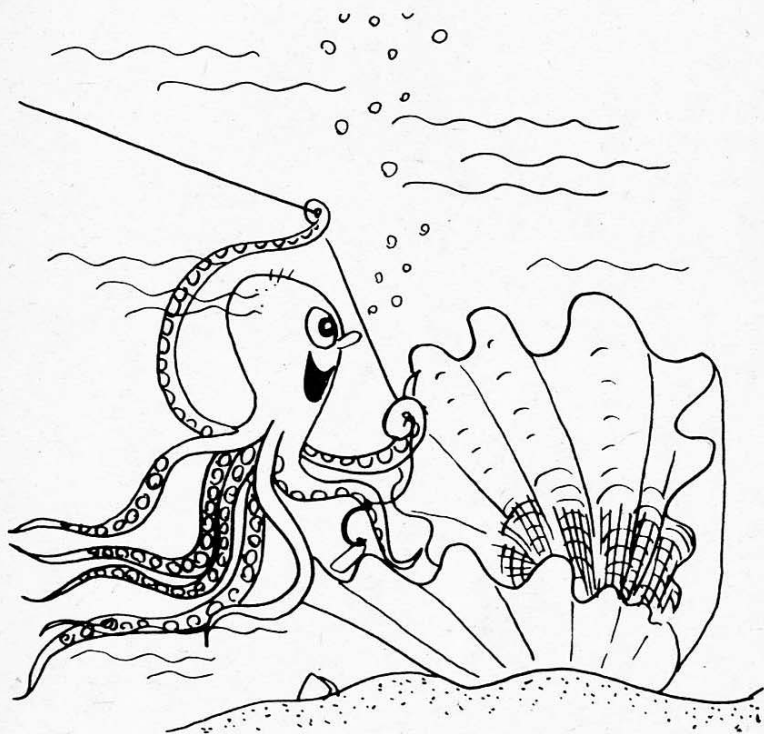

I will sell it."

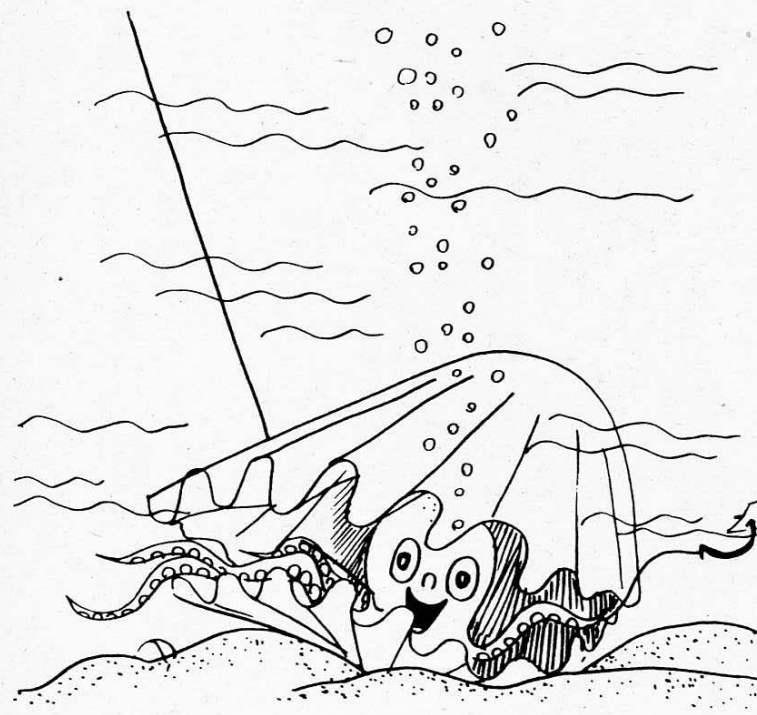

"See them.
Will I sell them?"

"I am in the shell.
It is shut."

"See the shell in the sand.
I will fit this in it."

"I fit in it.
I fill the shell.
This is fun."